

Network Manager Job Description

The Network Manager is responsible for building and maintaining the network services. Ensures the stability, security, and productivity of the corporate network infrastructure by providing senior-level technical expertise. Provides senior-level technical consultation to support staff, end-users, and for business initiatives. Acts as a project manager on network-related projects.

Responsibilities include:

- ▶ Website development and maintenance
- ▶ Establishing a corporate presence on social sites
- ▶ Building and maintaining relationships with various social networks
- ▶ Drive traffic to the website
- ▶ Establish Krusader Publishing as a brand name
- ▶ Work closely with management to create and implement new programs and initiatives.

Candidate should be proficient in XHTML, Java, and CSS, with 1+ year(s) of experience in computer science.

Salary:

Salary is based on website traffic and website traffic and advertising revenue. (Speak to an Administrator for details.)